GROVER AND THE POPE.

POST-ELECTION PILLS.

New York Press.—There were a Presidential or general Congressional election to-day, what a "prompt and unconditional repeal" of the Democratic party there would be!

WHAT ELSE WAS EXPECTED.

Boston Journal.—It is not surprising that business men in New York are angry to think that the great Empire state is represented in the Senate by two such men as Hill and Murphy. But until a Republican Legislature is elected nothing better can be expected.

WON'T DO SO NO MORE!

New York Press.—The war veterans are evidently going to charge on the Democratic party at the next election for Hoke Smith's pension-killer policy. A canvass of 147 Connecticut veterans was taken the other day, including 62 who owned up to having voted for Cleveland. Just 58 of the 619 voters they never vote the Democratic ticket again.

WHAT THREE COINAGE WOULD DO.

The free silver advocates in Congress ought to be told what would be the first result of the success of their efforts to establish free coinage in this country. Leading bankers estimate that there is outstanding at this time sterling loans amounting to about $70,000,000 in the aggregate. This money is owed to English capitalists, and when the loans are called they must be paid in gold, not in silver, for that is a condition on which the loans are made. Whenever the London bankers make up their minds that this country is to drift on a silver basis, these loans will be called, and $70,000,000 of gold will be drawn out of the United States Treasury for shipment to England. The disturbance the calling of the loans would cause may easily be imagined. Let the Sherman Act be repealed and foreign capitalists satisfied that our currency would be continued on a gold basis, and not only would these loans be continued, if need be, but there would be millions of foreign money seeking investment here, to take every advantage of the low prices now presented and the inevitable advance in value.

"OLD HICKORY" WAS GOOD TO WOMEN.

Pittsburgh Times.—When Andrew Jackson was President a Washington boarding-house keeper had a number of department clerks in her house who were very dilatory in paying for what they got. She tried driving them in every reasonable way, but they had skins as thick as a rhinoceros and consciences as impressionless as an asphalt pavement. She finally got tired of being systematically robbed, and having known the President before his election, he having been an ex-boarder of hers, she went to him with her complaint. He heard the story, and told her to get the worst of the boarders to give her his note for the amount due her.

This she readily did, the young man fondly imagining there was no easier or more inexpensive way of settling with her. But when she had gotten the note she carried it up to the White House and Jackson coolly indured it on the back. You may guess when his landlady carried that note back the young man started out to battle for the wherewithal to meet it, as it was not that that he would let it go to protect the President's signature on the back of it. When the story got out and the rest of the clerks saw what an interest the Chief Executive was taking in their board bills there was a general resolution in their methods of meeting such obligations.

REFUSED A PENSION.

A Manchester Veteran Comes Under the Ban of Hoke Smith.

A special from Manchester says one of the most contemptible acts of the present Administration of the Department in regard to the pensioning of veterans is the case of Wiley D. Pennington. This man, whose application under the law of 1890 was rejected on the ground that the degree of disability was not great enough to permit the granting of a pension.

When falling back compelled him to do so he made application for a pension under the old law, and was rejected. A Special Examiner then came to see him, and advised him to apply under the law of 1890. He did so and received a pension of $12 per month. He is now a pensioner, and is one of the old soldiers who did not apply for a pension so long as he could live without it.

A LONG NAP.

Remarkable Case in the Indiana Insane Hospital.

Bridget Pendergast Has Been Asleep for Nearly Three Years.

The Most Heroic Efforts to Wake Her Failed—She is Now Believed to Be Dying—The Case Has Attracted Much Interest Among Physicians.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 23.—Miss Bridget Pendergast, an inmate of the Central Insane Hospital, located in this city, who has been asleep for nearly three years, and whose case has attracted wide-spread interest among the medical profession, is reported to be dying. The most heroic efforts failed to wake her. Three years ago the patient showed evidence of insanity. Except upon rare occasions she would not talk and refused to take food. When she was induced to take food she said that poison had been placed in her food. On the 10th of July, 1893, she was removed to St. Vincent's hospital, where she remained dull, listless and melancholy, refusing to take food except when it was forced upon her. Miss Pendergast was 30 years of age when admitted to St. Vincent's hospital.

Little was known of her history, she having been born in Ireland, where most of her relatives resided, and the only cause of her insanity was ascertained to be that she had been disappointed in love.

On the 7th of September, 1890, she was admitted to the hospital for the insane, and has been an inmate of that institution ever since. For a time after being admitted she appeared to brighten up, and whenever the subject was mentioned she expressed a desire to go home. For a short time she took food, and then required to be fed. Finally, in February, 1891, she flatly refused to swallow anything, and a few days later she lapsed into a profound stupor or sleep, in which condition, with the exception of evidences of returning consciousness on one or two occasions, she remained up to last Thursday.

MILWAUKEE MEN.

Two Hundred Unemployed March to the City Hall and Demand Work.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 23.—A mob of over 200 unemployed laborers marched through the streets to the courthouse and called for the mayor Tuesday morning. When Mayor Koch made his appearance he was greeted with cries of "Bread!" and "Work!"

Several of the workmen made speeches and demanded that the city officials go to Washington and demand the law which made hard times repeated. They said they must have work or their families would starve. Mayor Koch advised them to return to their homes and procure work where ever they could. He said the city would soon have money enough to prosecute public improvements and give many men work. The mob then retired.

Monday night a party of workmen, who had been discharged, stopped at a baker's wagon on North Avenue and compelled him to give up his stock of bread. The same party went into a saloon and ordered beer, which they drank and refused to pay for.

Some of the agitators promise a larger and more sensational gathering Wednesday.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

A Colored Man Kills His Wife, Mistress and Then Commits Suicide.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 23.—Tuesday evening Edward Freeman, a colored man, met Emma Lutton, a white woman, near the Wylie avenue power house, and without a word of warning, pulled a pistol and fired. The woman fell to the pavement struck by a bullet in the temple.

Freeman walked down the avenue about 25 feet still holding the smoking revolver in his hands when suddenly he placed the weapon to his head, back of the right ear, fired and fell to the pavement dead. A patrolman who was at once called and the woman taken to the homeopathic hospital, where she died at 3:30. The body of the man was taken to the morgue.

Miss Lutton, who had been intimate with Freeman for the past four years, lately had been receiving the attentions of some one else. This made Freeman insanely jealous, which finally culminated in the above rash act.

DRIVEN FROM WORK.

Unemployed Men at Denver Object to "Starvation Wages."

DENVER, Aug. 23.—A mob of unemployed laborers Tuesday morning visited the vicinity where the North Side river is now being dammed and drove a lot of the trench seventy-five men who were working eight hours at $1.00 a day.

The men in the ditch were willing to work but the mob, with cries of "No starvation wages in free America," forced them to quit. Only three policemen were on the scene and they could do nothing. Contractor Hindry suspended all work for the day and has demanded protection for his men from the authorities. Later the mob drove off the laborers at work on the Capitol Hill sewer.

Knights of Labor Warned.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23.—At the request of Victoria Assembly, No. 219, of the Knights of Labor of Vancouver, B. C., the executive board of the Knights of Labor, has issued a special notice warning miners and mine laborers to stay away from that region, as the present conditions are dangerous to the outlook gloomy in the extreme.
